Prophecy

What does prophecy mean? The Bible's answer

A prophecy is a message from God. The Bible says that a prophet is inspired by the Holy Spirit.

Move and speak the word of God.

(2 Peter 1:20,21)

God reveals messages to prophets, who then pass them on to other people. (Acts of the Apostles 3:18)

The first thing to know is

All the prophecies in the Bible have not

May be interpreted at will;because

For prophecy never comes from

The will of man is the will of man to be sanctified.

Moved by the Spirit, Speak the Word of God

Come.

(2 Peter 1:20-21)

All the prophecies in the Bible will be fulfilled.

How can we prepare for the Lord's return?

2 Peter 3:1-13

1We must strive to preach the gospel and lead people to the Lord

Dear brothers, there is one thing you must not forget.

That is, with the Lord, one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day.

The Lord's promise has not yet come true.

Some people thought he was delaying.

In fact, it is not a delay, but a forbearance for you,

Not wanting any to perish, but wanting all to come to repentance.

2Live a holy and godly life

But the day of the Lord will come like a thief.

On that day, the sky will fall with a loud noise.

All things that have form will be destroyed by fire,

The earth and everything on it will be burned up.

Since all this must be dissolved in this way,

How holy you ought to be,

How to be pious and look forward to the coming of God's day.

3 Looking forward to the new heaven and new earth

On that day the heavens will be destroyed by fire, and the elements will be melted by fire. But we, according to his promise,

Looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, where righteousness dwells.
